

Red Wine, Chocolates & Triumphs
On Bainbridge Island
Saturday February 18th & Sunday 19th

This year we return to Bainbridge Island to sample their fine offerings. We hope you can join us, whether it's for the weekend or just Saturday. Triumphs are encouraged, but we understand if you need to use your daily driver. We'd just love to have you along.

If you're coming on the ferry, take the 9:35 AM Seattle to Bainbridge. We'll meet around 10:30 in the parking lot behind the Bainbridge Performing Arts Center, 200 Madison Ave N. Coming off the ferry, take the first left onto Winslow Way E. In half a mile, turn right onto Madison Ave N. A short way up, turn right into parking just before the red City Hall building (just after Island Fitness). The driveway will continue on to a larger parking area near the Performing Arts Center. After our drivers' meeting, we'll spend some time on Winslow Way, enjoying two chocolate shops and perhaps a tasting. We'll head up island for lunch, after which we'll visit wineries, distilleries, a brewery. There should be something for everyone.

Join the group later for dinner at the Tree House Café, or find your own special spot.

Sunday morning after breakfast we'll wrap up the 2023 RWCT Tour at Jim and Debra Dineen's garage. They have a stable of Triumphs, including TR3 and TR7 projects. See November on your Tyee calendar!

There's lots more to see in the area, so we'll have some afternoon suggestions for those of you who don't need to head right home.

You should make your hotel reservations now. On Bainbridge, there is The Marshall Suites, close to all our activity. Nearby is the Suquamish Clearwater Casino Resort, as well as the Poulsbo Inn.

If you think you'll be joining us, please RSVP to Mary at magdah@comcast.net to help our planning. But last minute participants are always welcome!

Cheers,
Jim Dineen, Mary Hogan and Karen Knudson
